

CAMP EYE DEE OLL
--A Simulated Camp Planning Experience--
Ted Ward, 1978

Groups: 4 or 5 people, all concerned with a camp or camps for people with particular developmental characteristics and needs.

1. Find and read any one, two, or three sections of Scripture that provide information on the virtues of the Christian life. (What qualities of human virtue reflect godliness?)
Suggestions: I Cor. 13:4-7; Galatians 5:22,23; Ephesians 4:1-3, 4:25-32; Philippians 2:1-4; Col. 3:12-17.
2. List from six to eight virtues or qualities that your group agrees to be of major importance in development as a Christian:

3. Describe three to six key needs of people of the age for which your camp is to be designed.

4. Through discussion, try to come to conclusions about the characteristics of the camp that will best enable you to meet these needs and help Christians develop.

5. Develop (and be prepared to explain) the following for your Camp EYE-DEE-OLL:

- a. Objectives of Camp EYE-DEE-OLL in rank order of importance
(limit to ten statements).

1.

2.

3.

4.

5. _____
6. _____
7. _____
8. _____
9. _____
10. _____

- b. Description of the person or persons for whom Camp EYE-DEE-OLL is most likely to be effective and valuable:

- c. List and briefly describe key programs and activities in Camp EYE-DEE-OLL (assume a moderate but not lavish budget). Circle (1) everybody (2) counseled choice or (3) free choice

Name and describe program or activity—Circle (1) (2) (3)

Purpose:

Name and describe program or activity—Circle (1) (2) (3)

Purpose:

Name and describe program or activity—Circle (1) (2) (3)

Purpose:

Name and describe program or activity—Circle (1) (2) (3)

Purpose:

Name and describe program or activity—Circle (1) (2) (3)

Purpose:

Name and describe program or activity—Circle (1) (2) (3)

Purpose:

- d. Change the camp name from Camp EYE-DEE-OLL to whatever best says what it has become. Repeat for each of the following items.

Camp name: _____

Camp motto: _____

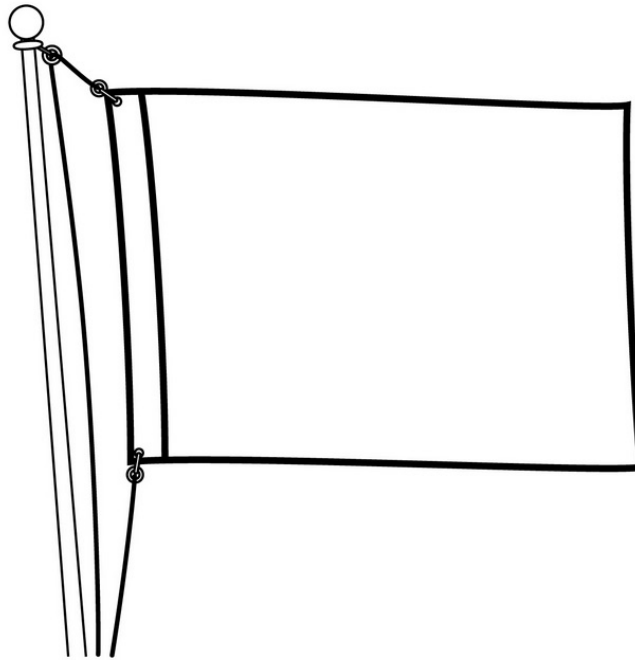

Camp map (use a large piece of paper)

Camp poster (use a large piece of paper).

Camp brochure (fold a piece of 8.5 X 11 paper in thirds).

Camp flag or banner (use the graphic below or create one of your own):¹

¹ Flag graphic from <http://cliparts.co/clipart/2410926>

To determine the quality and effectiveness of your work, consider: What values are being shown in each decision you make? Compare your camp plans with your list in item 2. Have you been consistent?