

Motives in Cross-Cultural Orientation

Side 1

Ted Ward

DO NOT TURN OVER

Male: _____ First Overseas Yes _____ Country or Region
Female: _____ Assignment? No _____ of Assignment: _____
Age: _____ Business/Industry: _____ Missions: _____ Government: _____ Education: _____

A. My greatest hope as I prepare to go overseas:

Questions I have in regard to this hope:

1. _____

2. _____

B. My major purpose in choosing to go overseas:

Questions I have in regard to this purpose:

1. _____

2. _____

C. My greatest need as I think about what it will take to carry on my life overseas:

Questions I have in regard to this need:

1. _____

2. _____

D. My greatest anxiety or fear about going overseas:

Questions I have in regard to this anxiety:

1. _____

2. _____

DO NOT TURN BACK

When all blanks are filled, turn over.

Side 2

As you prepare for overseas living, which matters are of concern to you?

		This is very important to me	I would like to read about this	I would like to talk to someone who knows	I would like to learn more about this in an orientation program
1.	Dealing with frustration
2.	interpersonal conflict
3.	unfamiliar situations
4.	changes in lifestyle
5.	Dealing with stress
6.	pressure to conform
7.	financial difficulties
8.	social alienation
9.	different political systems
10.	Communicating in a new language
11.	Dealing with new social customs
12.	unforeseen problems
13.	Making contact with strangers
14.	Relating closely with others
15.	Risking misunderstandings
16.	Developing satisfying relationships
17.	Dealing with anxiety
18.	Understanding other viewpoints
19.	Dealing with strange communications
20.	different educational systems
21.	Maintaining warm relationships
22.	Understanding feelings of others
23.	Feeling with others
24.	Working with others

DO NOT TURN BACK