

Ted often used “one pagers”—learning activities to prompt discussion of the issue of the day. This one is “Three Levels of Moral Concern—(On what sort of grounds do I discriminate between right and wrong?)”

Comment on the validity or consequences of each level:

1. What’s in it for me?

2. Be sure to please God! God has said . . . The Bible says . . . Be like Jesus! Please your mother and father . . . The rule says . . .

3. As a matter of respect for what God is doing in my life . . . I am learning to see things as Christ sees them . . . The reality of God is seen in the great principles of life: Love, honor, justice, faith—thus I decide . . .
