

Ted often used “one pagers”—learning activities to prompt discussion of the issue of the day. This one is “If Only . . . What is Needed for Effective Christian Education”

Task: Tear on the lines and sort into rank order of MOST to LEAST agreement with the statements.

Needed: Workers and teachers who are more capable of doing what is needed.	Needed: Programs which are more challenging to the participants.
Needed: Young people who are easier to work with.	Needed: People who are willing to help.
Needed: More willingness on my part to trust people.	Needed: Curriculum materials that are more “teacher proof.”
Needed: Better understanding of people, on my part.	Needed: More reasonable expectations of workers and teachers, on my part.
Needed: People who are more willing to take responsibility.	Needed: My setting a more consistent example.
Needed: More effective encouragement of workers and teachers on my part.	Needed: Greater willingness on my part to let people do things as they see best.
