

Questions to Stimulate Discussions about Change

Ted Ward

What ought things to be like and how did we come to that decision?

What are things like now and how did they get that way?

What are the differences and what can we do about them?